

December 9, 1918.

Knutsen Bros.,
Petersburg,
Alaska.

Gentlemen:

Your statistical report of fishery operations in Alaska in 1918, shows a catch of 531 cohos, 5,464 chums, 22,276 humpbacks and 467 red salmon. Please advise how these salmon were disposed of. If they were pickled report the number of barrels of each species and the value of the same. If they were sold to a cannery state the name of the company which purchased them. Only by giving this information can a duplication of count be avoided.

Very truly yours,

H. M. Smith

Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

On December 9, 1918, you were requested to report the disposition of 531 coho, 5,464 chum, 22,276 humpback, and 467 red salmon taken by you at Petersburg Creek. In view of the fact that no reply has been received to that letter, you are again requested to submit promptly the desired information.

Very truly yours,

H. F. Moore

Acting Commissioner.

December 9, 1918.

Mr. Louis Peterson,
Petersburg,
Alaska.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your report of fishery operations in Alaska in 1918, it is noted that you sold locally salmon and trout having a value of $740.53. The report contains no information as to the number of salmon of each species that were thus sold nor to whom. Please furnish this information at your earliest convenience and also state the value of seven barrels of coho and five barrels of dog salmon which you reported as having on hand at Petersburg.

Very truly yours,

H. M. Smith

Commissioner.
